of his investment; with the passage of this bill he can do so. An affirmative defense will be recognized for failing to deliver the commodities within the time frame of the statute when the failure was due to circumstances beyond the control of the seller. For example, if a seller cannot deliver in 28 days, if the department says the excuse is acceptable, it's acceptable, he gets away from delivering it in 28 days. This is especially important to people who deal in coins. There are many changes in the bill are housekeeping in nature or as a result of word changes by the Revisor of Statutes. I ask for your advancement of LB 283.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Thank you, Senator Haberman. Does anyone wish to speak to this bill? Seeing none, we will now vote on the motion to advance LB 283.

CLERK: (Roll call vote taken.) 30 ayes, 0 nays, Madam President, on the advancement of LB 283.

PRESIDENT MOUL: LB 283 is advanced. Do you have items for the record, Mr. Clerk?

CLERK: I do, Madam President. Your Committee on Enrollment and Review reports they have carefully examined and reviewed LB 198 and recommend that same be placed on Select File; LB 413, Select File; LB 176, Select File, signed by Senator Hohenstein as Chair of the committee. Health and Human Services reports LB 375 to General File; LB 818, General File; LB 496, General File with amendments; LB 522, General File with amendments; LB 528, General File with amendments, those signed by Senator Wesely. Urban Affairs reports LB 526 to General File; LB 726, General File; LB 441, General File with amendments; LB 501, General File with amendments; LB 732, General File with amendments, those signed by Senator Hartnett. Hearing notice from Urban Affairs Committee. Then a series of adds. Senator Ashford would like to add his name to LB 211; Senator Hohenstein to LB 112; Senator Hillman to LB 241; Senator Bernard-Stevens to 241; Senator Pirsch to LB 564. That's all that I have, Madam President. (See pages 645-49 of the Legislative Journal.)

PRESIDENT MOUL: Thank you, Mr. Clerk. I'll recognize the Speaker.

SPEAKER BAACK: Yes, Madam President and colleagues, I move that we adjourn until tomorrow morning at 9:00 a.m.
